Dear Parents and Students:

The Holiday Season is now upon us. I hope that everyone had a nice Thanksgiving. I am sure that you are all eager to find out more about your Holiday Program. Below you will find a list of the shows that we will be having. You can find your class listed under one of these times. Please arrive at the studio READY to dance 15 minutes prior to your posted show time. Ready to dance means dressed in your black leotard and correct colored tights for girls. Girls also need to wear light make-up consisting of the following: Black eyeliner and mascara (for girls 7 and up), brown eye shadow, blush, and dark brownish red lipstick. Girls need to have their hair in a way that is out of their faces for Jazz and Tap, and Ballet students must have their hair in either a Bun or French Braid. I understand that schedules are very busy this time of year and I have tried diligently to come up with times that will work for everyone.

Due to limited seating we ask that audience members be kept to immediate family and grandparents. All classes listed under the show will perform at that time. After the show there will be punch and cookies. We will be videotaping the show for the kids to watch as they enjoy their cookies, but you are welcome to bring cameras and camcorders. You can also purchase a copy of the shows for $18.00 on DVD each. They will be recorded after all the shows are completed and can be picked up at the studio when classes reconvene in January. This year we are hoping to be able to post video clips of our Holiday recital on the web site for family members to view that will be unable to attend. Be sure to check it out over Holiday break at www.missdeesdance.net

There will also be a craft and bake sale going on before and after the shows for which the proceeds will go to benefit the Dancimation Performing Company. There will also be a raffle for one month's free group lesson fees (value of $35.00, not redeemable for cash) and other prizes.

Please remember that there will be no regular classes during the week of the Holiday Programs (December 14-19, 2009) and that there will be NO classes December 20, 2009 - January 2, 2010 for holiday break. Classes will reconvene January 4, 2010. When we come back in January there will be a $30.00 deposit due per costume along with your January lesson fees. Your child will have ONE costume per 1 hour class that they take. Please remember that your lesson fees are due the first week of every month, including December and January, the price is based over the full year of classes.

Students of the month for December are Brooklyn Constantine and Lily Workman. Their pictures will be added to the Student of The Month on the web site

Please remember that with winter weather here, if weather is bad please check your email to see if there is a cancellation message and or WOTV Channel 8 to see if we are cancelled. If you have any questions about if we are having classes or not, please call the studio one hour before your scheduled class. Classes that are canceled beyond the 2 allotted classes that are built into the schedule will be made up at the earliest time possible. If you miss a makeup class it does not affect perfect attendance, however you will not receive a credit.

I wish you all a wonderful and safe Holiday Season.

Miss Dee
